napkin theology

you were to die tonight and God asked you why he should let you into heaven, how would you answer? ORE: Where are you on your Spiritual Journey? Are you moving towards or away from God? Why? If

1. creation God designed the universe to be centered on Himsel

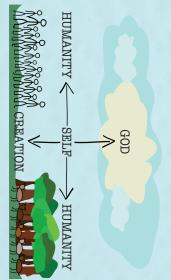

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him, male and female he created them.

was in the beginning, he is the author and designer of life. He knows how life assume this is true.) should be lived. ("If" is a big question, but for the sake of the conversation, let's  ${\sf SPEAK}$ : These may be the most important verses for our generation. If God are free to live as we were designed. We then live around Himself. He designed humans as the with God we are secure in who He made us and we relationship with Him. When we are in relationship pinnacle of his creation and to live in rightly in three main relationships: God created everything to be centered

2. Relationship with humanıty: Jove one anvuner 3. Relationship with the natural order: stewardship 1. Relationship to God: subordinate

EX PLORE: problems? What are the greatest problems of the world today? Can you think of any root causes of those

2. fall All of us have centered lite on ourselves

created us to find peace in Him, then the Bible calls these self-attempts at peace, "sin" fulfilling. The result is an endless self-centered obsession with finding peace through things, or people, but if God Our souls were created to worship God. We have all replaced God with other things that seem more

Philosophers have said it this way:

Kierkegaard Sin is trying to find your identity apart from Goa Augustine Our heart is restless until it finds rest in You. Pascal There is a God shaped vacuum inside of every human heart.

The Bible says it this way:

and served the creature rather than the Creator. Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death. Romans 3:23 For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. Romans 1:25 They exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped

MAN

ISIEN: What do those verses and quotes mean?

way to find ultimate meaning. This turning from God's way is offensive to God. We think that fame, power, money, popularity, freedom, and beauty in treedom trom God rather than in submission to find peace apart from God. Sin searches for wisdom, meaning relationships and even religion will satisfy us. But these are not God's PEAK: Sin is NOT just an action. Sin is a HEART ATTITUDE that seeks to

self

self

3. and exploit the earth instead of caring for it. are on collision courses with one another, Center our lives on self rather than God,

God have been broken through sin, this affects other key relationships as well.

Him and thus keeps us each from his perfect presence. As our relationships with

Seli

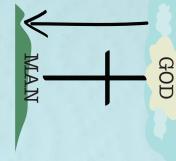

Now we all:

death do to fix the human situation? At this point, in your understanding of the Bible, what did Jesus' XPLORE: Before moving on, what do you think?

3. redemption God made a way for us to re-center our lives on Him

return to our original design. But it's not enough to try to be a good person. Who really is a good person deep down? However, perfection is the requirement for us to return to a right relationship with a perfect God. How could someone who is not perfect restore a relationship with a God who is?  $^{2}\mathrm{LAK}$  . The message of the Bible is that there is great hope for us and for the world. God made a way for us to SPEAK: Here is the solution! God came down to man through Jesus on the cross. He made a bridge for the separation which we created through our self-centeredness. Jesus' gift of death can now cancel out the debt of faith in Jesus and his promises. Faith is shown by turning to God and admitting that he is real and that we have sin that we owe and purify our hearts so that we can return to a relationship with God. All this happens through offended him and given worship to freedom from God rather than in ### submission to God The Bible says it this way:

children of God. John 1:12 All those that receive Christ, to them He gave the right to become boast your own doing; it is the gift of God, 9 not a result of works, so that no one may Ephesians 2:8-9 By grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not a gift? According to all of this, How has God designed a way back to Him? What is faith? (trust- belief in action) What is a gift? How do you receive STEN What does grace mean? What does it mean to be 'saved'?

Receive Jesus

Revelation 3:20 / stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, / will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.

LISTEN: Christ is speaking, what are the steps of response? (hear Him, open the door, receive by faith)

4. restoration One day, God will ultimately restore all of creation

EXPLORE: "IF" all this is true, what would God want to do with all the problems of the world?

GOD

gone torever. tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them. [a] 4 He will wipe every 3 I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, "Look, God's home is now among his people! He will old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone. 2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven like a bride beautitully dressed for her husband. Revelation 21: 1-4 (NLT) Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the power working through us. change us to be more like Himself from the inside out. Then all other relationships begin to be mended by His part of that restoration. When we return to our central relationship of worship towards God, He can begin to  ${\sf SPEAK}$ : God can restore the brokenness of our hearts AND the brokenness of the world. He wants to use us as a EXPLORE: What do you think? What does it mean to be a Christian according to these Biblical ideas?

ISTEN: Who is doing the work? Diagram #1 vs. Diagram #2 man? According to the diagram, who is doing the work between God and and man? Who would have to pay the penalty for the separation between Goc 3. Who is man's faith in? Whose works is man relying on?

Which one would you like to represent your life? Why? own words. Which of the two circle circles represent your life? Describe the differences between each circle in your

Receive Christ through life on myself. center my life on you rather than center my Come into my life and start to change me to on the cross to pay the debt for sin that I owe you and l admit that l need you. You created faith by prayer. God, I believe in freedom apart from you. Thank you for dying against you by trying to find fulfillment and me to center my life on you. I have sinned ask you to forgive me of my sin toward you

Amen

napkin theology

nap kin [nap-kin] noun- a small piece of cloth or paper, usually square, for use in wiping the lips and fingers and to protect the clothes while eating.

the ology [thee-ol uh-jee] noun the study of religious faith, practice, and experience especially : the study of God and of God's relation to the world

OK, so what do a napkin and theology have to do with one another? Well everyONE, whether they know it or not thinks about theology. EveryONE has a view of who they think God is or isn't. And no matter where you go, coffee shops, restaurants, dorm rooms, fraternities, napkins are everyWHERE. With a little bit of thought, practice and willingness to engage your friends, you can combine the two to have meaningful dialogue about the things that matter most....God and people. Napkin Theology is a tool that will equip you to use every day objects, a napkin and a pen, to EXPLORE people's lives, LISTEN to how they think, and SHARE the overarching story of the Bible. You and I were created they think, and SHARE the overarching story of the Bible. You and I were create to join others in their spiritual journeys. Come explore how to be a napkin theologian.

EXPLORE: memorize these questions that help you figure out what a person feels about theology

LISTEN: memorize these questions to help you understand what a person thinks about theology SPEAK: memorize these themes and verses to explain the overarching story of the Bible harness attention. You can also be ready to draw some diagrams that really help helpful to have some investigating questions to ask to uncover people's hearts illuminate the gospel message. Alongside that information, it can be really and breakdown walls that might be up. Finally, it can be really helpful to have some scripture memorized to communicate what God says in the Bible about now to know Him. Here's what you need to look for in the following pages.

be able to recount the information, writing it down for you and a friend to track along together. By having a napkin before you, you have a focal point to the four major movements of the Bible- Creation, Fall, Redemption and Restoration. They are meant as a guide to learn and even memorize so that you will

The following pages are arranged like four sides of a napkin. They highlight salvation? A massive amount of information floods through your head and you are confused at where to start. On the floor next to you lies your rescue--a napkin and a pen. You quickly think, "napkin theology!"

are compelled to tell them about how Jesus has changed your life and caused you to view all of life and relationships differently. What do you do? What do you say in order to communicate the basic outline of the Bible's message of ough night. They really want to talk. As you listen to what has happened you Say you're in your living area hall at 2 a.m. and your friend walks in from a